1840—'95 Old Book Store—1909.
The best place to buy books is at a well established book store, where stock is carefully selected and kept up to date the new books being received as soon as published, and sold at the lowest possible prices. Such is the place in Cranston's well known book shop, which for seventy years has been the leading book store of Eastern Connecticut. The stock is complete and their prices are right.

THE AUDITORIUM.

As fall of good things as a Thanksgiving mince pie is the specially arranged programme for the Auditorium during the week. A pleasing feature of this excellent bill will be the return by request of the O'Donnell Brothers popular Irish comedians, who secured their extraordinary success when they appeared here about a year ago. For the benefit of those who have not seen this clever act we wish to state that Mr. Steve O'Donnell is the only man playing the genuine Irish bagpipe on the stage today.

The comedienne, Florence Benjamin, has a style of delivery which has been her far above the average single turn. Frank Saypo and Robert Benn, comedy acrobats, flipping the faps, will introduce some clever comic work with some smart gymnastic gyrations.
The catchy Indian song of the season, "Singing Bird," Lillian Morrell singing it. Enough said.
The explosion scene in the "Unspoken Good-Bye" is the most thrilling ever produced in motion photography. A new reel by a new firm, "For the Cause of Suffrage." Also a special feature which will be a surprise.

SPECIAL MUSIC.

Master Harry Noonan, Boy Soprano, Sings at Spiritual Academy.

As an added feature to the service at the Spiritual Academy this Sunday evening, Master Harry Noonan, the popular boy soprano, has been engaged to sing at the evening service, and will render one of his most successful sacred songs, his many admirers insisting that the society sing him, that they have an opportunity of hearing him in a different class of songs. Master Noonan appears in yellow churly at the sacred Sunday concert in Boston, where he is in great demand.

BREED THEATER.

"Entombed Alive," Thrilling Feature Motion Picture.

One of the most novel plots seen at the Breed theater in a long time is the one in the great picture from the French classics entitled "Entombed Alive." In this picture the celebrated Italian actors that comprised the big company organized to tour the Italian theaters of America, are seen advantage, bringing to this country many new and interesting mannerisms and features. Many other exceptionally strong pictures are shown on the interesting programme, including some of the unparalleled Biograph comedy. Miss Wolcott demands the closest attention in her beautiful song, "My Flame Is Where the Heather Blooms," from Rob Roy, and it is at once apparent that her experience in singing this song for one year, while with the Bostonians, has made her master of it, the audience demanding its repetition.

A NORWICH CASE

MANY MORE LIKE IT IN NORWICH.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Norwich. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

Mrs. Margaret Cox, 191 West Main Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "My son procured Doan's Kidney Pills for me from N. D. Sevin & Son's drug store and their use proved of great benefit. I had been miserable for some time from disordered kidneys. Mornings when I arose my back was so painful that I could scarcely straighten and at times I could not do anything. Trouble with the kidney secretions also bothered me, the passages being too frequent. I was subject to dizzy spells, and more than once came near falling on this account. My face bloated and there was also a perceptible swelling of my feet and hands. I tried various medicines and doctored great deal, but nothing gave me any relief. I was about discouraged when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, but I had only taken a few doses before I began to place great confidence in them. The use of one box put an end to all lameness in my back, restored my health and benefiting me in a general way. It gave me peace of mind to tell other persons of the curative powers of Doan's Kidney Pills."
